INT. CHURCH VESTRY - DAY

DAVID (late 20s) has just been jilted at the altar.

DAVID

No. The jilted man does not need pity from his sister. He's doing fine all by himself. You know why? 'Cause I'm relieved. Hell, I'm ecstatic. From now on, I never have to wake up, and worry about her leaving me. Isn't that great? Isn't that just the greatest, lamest, most self-pitying thing you've ever heard?
